The Law Offices of Russell I. Marnell Earn ‘Best of Long Island’ Nod Nominated for 2014 ‘Best Divorce Lawyer’

EAST MEADOW, NY (12.30.2014)—Russell I. Marnell, the lead attorney and founder of the Law Offices of Russell I. Marnell, P.C., this year procured a nomination for the prestigious 2014 ‘Best Divorce Lawyer’ category in Long Island Press’ “Best of Long Island” poll. This nomination was earned during a year where Mr. Marnell litigated multiple complex divorce cases involving custody, paternity and a variety of intricate financial matters.

“I’m deeply honored to be nominated for an award that is based on the votes of my clients,” said Marnell. “When clients themselves refer friends or colleagues, it really speaks volumes. But, in recognizing us publicly, our clients prove to us that our practice delivers the quality of service expected and the level of support our clients both demand and deserve. We are incredibly proud.”

The “Best of Long Island” program, hosted by the Long Island Press—Long Island’s premier investigative news journal--is an awards program giving Long Islanders an opportunity to vote on the best businesses. Their motto, “We ask you to tell us. You vote. We tally. You decide. We tell the world.”

“As more people fulfill lifelong dreams towards business ownership, advanced degrees and personal success and combine it with marriage, we are experiencing an uptick in complex divorce cases,” said Marnell. “To equitably divide property, assets and intellectual property as well as responsibly support children and spouses, multiple layers of disclosure must be completed. Given our specialization in forensic accounting and cross platform business and law expertise, word of mouth referrals to our office have increased.”

I cannot say enough positive things about him.”
